

Again

Through a window shines the morning light
As I wake up to find
I`m still here
From a dream I didn`t wanna loose
I was walking there with you
It was so real

Though you I`ve not seen
Face paints for me
Dreams that only eyes of hope see
And when I can`t hear trust will whisper to me
And I fall for you again

As the evening color fills the sky
Standing here reminded why
I`m standing here at all
Then I close my eyes and dream of you
What I thought I knew could never show me who you are
Who you are, yeah, yeah

Though you I`ve not seen
Face paints for me
Dreams that only eyes of hope see
And when I can`t hear trust will whisper to me
And I fall for you again
