

Fades away

Elli Erl/Jake Röder/Matt Johnson/Josh Haselton 07.07.06

Seems like this happens every time
It all comes down to you and I
The world keeps turning
Bridges keep burning
You`re the only solid ground in my life

And it`s you I need when the rain falls
And the cold winds blow my way
It`s you I need in this moment
When the last hope I got slowly fades away

Why is this always how it goes
You take my hand just when I loose control
I`m barely breathing, you give me one more reason
You save my life and you don`t even know

Repeat Chorus

When everything else crumbles, I`m still standing
Cause you hold me up and I
Couldn`t have better planned it, you always there
When I`m not strong enough
