

Lose Myself

It's a little too loud, I can't hear my thoughts
There's a little too much routine to this chaos
I don't wanna wake up in these chains,
There's nothing but smoke and ashes in this place

Chorus

I wanna lose myself in a sky so blue, while time stands still
And feel the life rush through my veins
I wanna a taste of freedom, I'm gonna chase that feeling
Let the world go on without me

It's a little too cold, no one knows my name
I'm a little too tired, to keep carrying this weight
I don't wanna take one more step
There's nothing but ghosts and demons in my head

Chorus
