

Moving on

Matt Johnson/Shane Baker/Josh Haselton 7-10-2006

You were too good to be true
I wasn't good enough for you
At least that's what you said

I took a backseat to your friends
A sideshow with benefits
I let you get into my head

I'm moving on with my life
Like a turned our glass
Starting over is alright with me
It just wasn't meant to be

I would lose my mind if I tried
To unravel the painful tangled mess of our lives
We're just too far gone
And I'm moving on

It went on way too long
Don't know why I played along
I just wanted to feel something inside

Everybodys got their regrets
Done things they can't forget
I guess you're mine

Repeat Chorus

And I'm not looking back
I guess I learned the hard way
But that's ok
