

Smile@me

I feel the rain on my head, I feel the rain on my head
I feel the rain on my head and it brings me down
I feel the rain on my head, I feel the rain on my head
I feel the rain on my head and it brings me down

All I need's a little sunshine to get me through these hard times
All I need's a little sunshine to get me through the day

I feel the wind in my face, I feel the wind in my face
I feel the wind in my face and it's knocking me down

All I need's a place to hide, shelter from the storm outside
All I need's a place to hide, shelter from the cold

Chorus

Yeah, yeah, yeah just smile at me just smile at me
Yeah, yeah, yeah just smile at me and say
Yeah, yeah, yeah everything's gonna be ok
Yeah, yeah, yeah just smile at me

I feel a weight on my back, I feel a weight on my back
I feel a weight on my back and it's breaking me down

All I need's a hand to hold, a hand to help me bear this load
All I need's a hand to hold when I can't carry on

Chorus

Yeah, yeah, yeah just smile at me just smile at me
Yeah, yeah, yeah just smile at me and say
Yeah, yeah, yeah everything's gonna be ok
Yeah, yeah, yeah just smile at me
