

Won't look back

You don't know me like you think you do, there's so much you don't understand
I'm not afraid of letting go of this Seems there's been a change of plans

Ref.:

No I won't look back
I know where I'm going now
Won't take the easy way out
I know somehow
I'm on the right track
And I won't look back

Finding me has been a winding road
It's one I've had walk alone
Not everybody gets a second chance
That's why it's time that I move on

For the very first time
Feels like I'm living my life
It's my life
It's my life
